At Newport Primary School we recognise that involving Parents and Carers in their children's education can help remove barriers to learning, improve attitudes and behavior and raise attainment.

Parenting isn't an easy job and at times things can get tough. As Parents and Carers there are times when we all need a little extra support and guidance, someone to talk to and to point us in the right direction, someone who is non-judgmental who will listen and offer practical advice and support.

I may not have all the answers but together we can explore a way forward!

How can I help?

- Foster positive relationships between home school and other agencies.
- Discuss issues and concerns and implement strategies or interventions to help you, your child and your family.
- Find services and other agencies available to help support you, your child and your family.
- Aid and encourage good attendance.
- Provide direct and confidential support for Parents and Carers.
- Offer emotional support to help manage and resolve issues.
- Support Parents and Carers with establishing routines and positive parenting.
- Support Parents and Carers to take up adult learning opportunities.
- Help Parents and Carers support their children's learning.
- Build Parents and Carers confidence to deal with difficult parenting issues and behaviours.
